FIRST-TIME STUDENTS

HOUSE: OFFERED ALL WEEKS

First-time students role-play as state representatives, debating real bills from the Michigan Legislature. The simulation culminates with a House Legislative Session in which students debate the merits of the bills and vote on final passage.

RETURNING STUDENTS

Senate
 all weeks

Second-time students build on their legislative experience by amending their bills, contributing to media coverage of the House, and helping lead the House Floor Session.

Media
 all weeks

Media students play a key role as part of the LEAD News Network, producing newscasts and a daily newspaper. Students gain both print and broadcast experience.

Business
 week 1

Role-playing as company executives in a competitive simulation, student teams go head-to-head managing multimillion-dollar corporations over an “8-year” time span.

Mock Trial
 week 2

Coached by expert lawyers and judges, Mock Trial students work in teams as prosecuting or defense attorneys in a realistic trial simulation with a judge, jury, and witnesses.

Moot Court
 week 2

Students learn about case law, explore the appellate court system, and argue constitutional cases before members of the Michigan Appeals Court and Supreme Court.

Campaign
 week 3

Student teams develop platforms, plan outreach and advertising, and participate in a public debate to persuade voters to elect their candidate as Michigan’s next governor.
